The vision:

Rural communities in Wales have sustainable and accessible public transport that connects with the services, employment, cultural and education opportunities to enable them to thrive, whilst also meeting climate change goals.

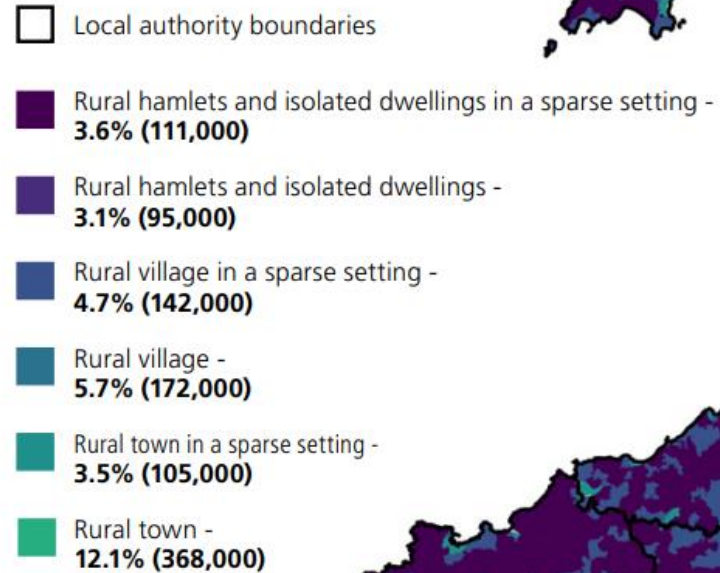

The Relevance of Rural Wales

80% of the land mass is rural

1/3 of the population lives in rural areas

1/4 of the rural population live in poverty

9 out of 22 Local Authorities defined as rural

TrawsCymru

- Connected
- Branded
- Reduced emissions
- Simple, distance-based fares
- Driving modal shift
- Hywel Dda Health Board pilot

Fflecsi – Wales' DRT service

- 3 pilots in 2020 to 17 routes in 2024
- Replacing scheduled fixed routes
- Enabling hybrid timetables
- Dovetailing with school contracts
- Utilising community transport operators

Sherpa Yr Wyddfa – thinking differently

- Integrates with Traws Cymru, fflecsi, Rail and Active Travel networks.
- Links the main walking paths, car parks, villages, and attractions in the local area.
- Tourism and environmental benefits.
- Bucking the patronage trend.

Bringing it all beautifully together
